Date: 9/27/2012

Superintendent: Mark Sweeney

Company: Infinity Construction Services, LP

Jose Tijerina has 36 years with the company and most of his crew having 5 or more years working together. As I observe this crew on a daily basis I see good communication between each other and a drive to help each other out by intervening. Most of them know something about each others family, which makes it more personal if someone is involved in an event. Jose has earned the respect from his crew and they will listen and take care of any issues that might come up. This crew has gone many months without any significant non-compliance issues or incident and show patience with the rules and changes that come up. Any comments or issues that I give to the group is taken with respect to our safety department. Jose and his crew represent The Infinity Group with respect.

Thanks for your support and dedication to providing a safe work environment.
